Dear Educator,

Historic Philadelphia, Inc. (HPI) is a non-profit organization dedicated to making our nation’s history relevant and real through interpretation, interaction, and education.

We offer tours and programs that immerse students in the rich cultural identity of Historic Philadelphia. Our programs are created by classroom educators for classroom educators and maximize learning opportunities by utilizing contemporary education theories and research-based methods of effective instruction. Many of our tours and programs can be combined with one another to create a full-day experience encompassing a variety of historical characters, themes, and events.

Our education programs and supplementary curricular materials emphasize cross-curricular learning and meaningful understandings by complying with Common Core standards and reflecting the themes identified by the National Council for the Social Studies as the organizing strands for social studies curriculum. On the last page of this Planning Guide, you will find a list of corresponding standards to each of the tours and programs offered through HPI, to assist in planning your field trip and aligning the visit with your curricular goals.

Most importantly, HPI creates unforgettable, exciting, and highly educational experiences for a wide range of learners with a variety of interests and learning styles. We look forward to working with you to create these experiences for your students and community.

Please feel free to contact me for recommendations, information, or to book your reservation.
